

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral, 600 East Boulevard, Charlotte, NC 28203, 704-334-4771

Warriors of Greece Historical Lectures

Chris Pangalos, US Marine Corps Infantry Veteran, avid history buff and award-winning Ancient Greek reenactor returns once again this year, back by popular demand to educate and entertain guests with his legendary tales of The Warriors of Greece!

Chris Pangalos, the founder of the Ancient Greek Living History Reenactment Group, The Warriors of Greece combines the master story telling style of Aesop's Fables with the historical knowledge of Herodotus in a way that makes his interactive presentations exciting, keeping listeners glued to their seats, hanging on his every word. You definitely don't want to miss one minute of Chris' talks!

Thursday

5:30 pm    The Greco-Persian War    (This lecture given from the Main Rear Stage)

Friday

4:00 pm    The Greco-Persian War    (This lecture given from the Main Rear Stage)

5:00 pm    The Battle of Marathon    First Persian Invasion of Greece

6:00 pm    Death Before Dishonor    The Battle of Thermopylae

7:00 pm    Master of the Sea    The Battles of Salamis, Artemisium & Mykale

8:00 pm    A New Age Begins    Final Victory at the Battle of Plataea

Saturday

3:00 pm    The Spartans    Elite Warriors of Antiquity

4:00 pm    The Battle of Marathon    First Persian Invasion of Greece

5:00 pm    Death Before Dishonor    The Battle of Thermopylae

6:00 pm    Master of the Sea    The Battles of Salamis, Artemisium & Mykale

7:00 pm    A New Age Begins    Final Victory at the Battle of Plataea

8:00 pm    Alexander the Great    Undefeated Greek Warrior

Presentations will be take place in the downstairs lecture hall of the Cultural Center next to The Warriors of Greece display room except where noted next to the lecture title above.

Lectures and/or times are subject to change.