

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral, 600 East Boulevard, Charlotte, NC 28203, 704-334-4771

What are the Festival hours?

Thursday: 11am-9pm, Friday – Saturday: 11am-10pm, Sunday: 12 noon-6pm

What is the price of admission?

$3.00. Children 12 and under admitted free, and must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Do you offer group discounts?

School groups and senior citizen groups can make arrangements for free admission by calling the Cathedral office at (704) 334-4771 between 10:00 am and 6:00 pm weekdays at least one week before Festival start.

Any helpful information on getting there and parking?

CATS/Bus/Lynx Light Rail – The Festival is less than a mile walk from the East/West Boulevard Lynx station. Visitors who ride the CATS/Bus/Lynx Light Rail to the festival will receive free admission when they show their same-day stamped ticket.

In partnership with the Charlotte Housing Authority (CHA)  Charlotte Housing Authority
Building Community, People & Partnerships
at 400 East Boulevard in Charlotte, Yiasou Greek Festival patrons and volunteers may park free at the CHA surface lot (NOT in the parking deck) after 5:00 PM Friday, all day Saturday, and all day Sunday. Take advantage of the “2-blocks stroll” to the Yiasou Greek Festival!

Side street parking is available on nearby Dilworth neighboring streets, adhere to posted parking guidelines. And, please do not block any driveways.

Are pets allowed?

No, except service dogs.