

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral, 600 East Boulevard, Charlotte, NC 28203, 704-334-4771

The Warriors of Greece Historical Lectures
www.TheWarriorsofGreece.com

Chris Pangalos, US Marine Corps Infantry Veteran, historian and multi award-winning Ancient Greek reenactor returns once again this year, back by popular demand to educate and entertain all with his legendary tales of the heroic Warriors of Greece!

Chris Pangalos, the founder & Commander of the Ancient Greek living history reenactment group, The Warriors of Greece combines the master story telling style of Aesop's Fables with the historical knowledge of Herodotus, the "Father of History" in a way that makes his interactive full color presentations exciting, keeping listeners glued to their seats, hanging on his every word. You definitely don't want to miss one minute of Chris' talks!

Friday, September 6, 2019

6:00 pm	The Battle of Marathon	First Persian Invasion of Greece
7:00 pm	Death Before Dishonor	The Battle of Thermopylae
8:00 pm	A New Age Begins	Final Victory at the Battle of Plataea

Saturday, September 7, 2019

5:00 pm	Death Before Dishonor	The Battle of Thermopylae
7:00 pm	A New Age Begins	Final Victory at the Battle of Plataea
8:00 pm	Alexander the Great	Undefeated Greek Warrior

Presentations will be take place in the downstairs lecture hall of the Cultural Center next to The Warriors of Greece display room.

Lectures and/or times are subject to change.